 11:00 a.m.

YU SUK CHUNG -vs- WORLD CORPORATION

PRESENT: Hon. Alex R. Munson, Chief Judge Presiding
Gilbert Birnbrich, Law Clerk
Sanae Shmull, Court Reporter
Michelle C. Macaranas, Deputy Clerk
Colin Thompson, Attorney for Plaintiff
Matthew Gregory, Attorney for Defendant
Joe Hill, Attorney for Defendant
Ignacio Aguigui, Attorney for Defendant

PROCEEDINGS: MOTION TO COMPEL

Attorney Colin Thompson appeared on behalf of Plaintiff. Attorney Matthew Gregory appeared on behalf of Defendant. Joe Hill was present on behalf of Mr. Kyu Sang Cho. Also present was Ignacio Aguigui, Esq. on behalf of defendant World Corporation.

Attorney Aguigui moved the court to continue this matter for two weeks due to a possible resolution to this matter. Attorney Thompson objects to the continuance and moves the court to proceed with the matter. Attorney Hill argued on behalf of Mr. Cho.

Court, after hearing all argument, denied the motion to continue the matter.

The Court's tentative ruling is to grant the motion to compel and deny the motion for sanction. Attorney Aguigui argued on behalf of the defendant. Attorney Gregory apprised the court that Mr. Cho refuses to come to Saipan for the deposition. Attorney Thompson argued on behalf of the plaintiff.

Court, after hearing all argument, adopted the court's tentative ruling and ordered that Mr. Cho make himself available for deposition within three weeks.
